The Pittsburgh Dispatch head-line calls the Guitane trial "Cox's Comedy."

JOHN KELLY says he will not retire from politics, and his enemies have demonstrated that he can't be retired. That seems to fix him as a permanent thorn in the side of the Reorganized and Reformed Democracy, a place which he fills with credit to himself and with patriotic service to the community.

It will doubtless bring tears to the eyes of many sensitive readers to learn that there has been received in Baltimore from Albuquerque, New Mexico, a white onion weighing one pound and ten ounces. Those who can control themselves sufficiently to look at it without weeping say that it is "quite a curiosity."

REMARKS took occasion in the German Reichstag recently to announce himself as the representative of the imperial and monarchical policy as exhibited in the personal rule of the Hohenzollerns. This was quite unnecessary, for with all his facilities on minor questions of politics nobody ever suspected him of any genuine progressive instincts.

MAYOR DANIEL, the defeated Bourbon candidate for Governor of Virginia, is stepping about in a very chirpy manner and is predicting that his State will be solid again for the Democratic party before long. When he was congratulated on his high spirits recently, he said: "Why, I have not thought of politics since election." His observations upon Virginia sufficiently attest that.

THE Steubenville Gazette (Democratic) admits that "the Democratic party is at a lower ebb than it has been since the Greeley campaign." It also concedes that it is owing to some extent to "individual treachery and internal dissensions." An open confession in good for the soul. It is true that this is not all the Gazette says on the subject, but this much truth in a column article of a political nature in its columns leads us to hope for the Gazette a still further awakening to the defects and weaknesses of its party.

A MOVEMENT is on foot to secure Congressional recognition of the Red Cross Society. This society is recognized by all the European powers. It is an association for the amelioration of the sufferings of the sick and wounded in armies in time of war, and is made up almost exclusively of women, who in a spirit of humanity and sacrifice consecrate themselves to this high service. It should have the recognition asked for in this country, a recognition which is necessary to put it in a position where it will be of the most service to the suffering soldiers.

DUNNO the past month there has been a remarkable and inexplicable appearance of small-pox in the northwest, and particularly in Minnesota, where it has broken out in many localities at nearly the same time. Wilkin county has applied to the Governor for aid in the matter, and a physician has been sent from St. Paul with a supply of vaccine virus. Many medical men and others who have given the subject of epidemics special attention, are of the opinion that the whole country is to be swept by small-pox. We believe Dr. Edwards, our local Health Officer, shares this opinion. Whether it rests upon a good foundation or not, it will be well for every community to put itself in good sanitary order, fortifying against the possible inroads of the dread scourge.

THE Cincinnati Gazette says that if the members of the city government had any shame they would either die or resign. "There is not a town so large in America or Europe which has such wretched streets. There is not a well paved street in the whole city, and the attempt to clean seems to be abandoned. There is not a street that has half a dozen continuous squares of good sidewalk. Yet taxes enough are spent to keep the roadways in good condition, and government has power to order the sidewalks built by assessment." The Gazette should send a man to Wheeling to study our system of street paving and cleaning. If the members of the city government of the Paris of America (which gets its name from the plaster in the streets) were to come here and inspect the Seventeenth street job and the South Jacob street improvement they would go home and introduce thorough and telling reforms.

OUR OWN ATHENS.

MORANTOWN, November 29.
 Possessing but few locals with which to write a letter, yet we trust that this may prove sufficiently interesting to find a place in your columns.

The fall term of the University closed on Tuesday, November 23d, under such circumstances as were very encouraging to the many friends and patrons of the school. All the students seem to be satisfied with the work accomplished, and a feeling of hard work pervades the whole school. The winter term opened the next day, and the indications are that it will be one of the most successful in the history of the University.

Prof. Brooks is on hand, and the first law lecture of the course was delivered Friday afternoon. This is comparatively a new feature in the University, and is one that should receive the earnest support and encouragement of every citizen of the State. Young men who intend practicing law would do well to avail themselves of these lectures, embracing as they do a thorough course in the elements of law. These lectures are delivered free to all the students of the University, and by that means places them within the reach of every one.

The junior class made their first appearance November 18, and gave their audience a rare literary treat; the performers acquitted themselves with credit, and gave evidence of decided merit. There is some fine talent in this class, and we predict for them at their next performance a large and appreciative audience.

and junior classes being larger than they have been for a number of years, and we see no reason why this should not be so. It has all the appliances and advantages of the best colleges, together with a curriculum that will compare favorably with any institution of its kind in the land.

Lieut. A. L. O'Brien, of the Seventh cavalry, U. S. A., paid a flying visit to his brother, Sergeant O'Brien, who is attending school at the University. Lieut. O'Brien is stationed in Montana, and is now on a six months' furlough.

Prof. White returned last week from a long geological tour in connection with the Pennsylvania survey. Prof. White is a man of marked ability and is fast becoming famous as a geologist.

Rev. Hughes, formerly of your city, but who is now stationed at this place, is making hosts of friends among the people of the town. Mr. Hughes is a forcible and enterprising speaker, and we bespeak for him abundant success in this, his new field of labor.

The temperance movement is again coming to the front and the subject of prohibition is being discussed to a considerable extent in the various churches of the town. A mass meeting will be held in the M. E. Church, of this place, on next Sunday night, at which time ex-Senator Willy will discuss the subject of prohibition from a financial point of view. The West Virginia Temperance organ of the State, has quite a large circulation in this place, much to the chagrin of quite a large number of students, some of whom, we understand, were badly taken in by it. Brother Johnson, you must either make your paper more interesting or curtail your fair agent in this place.

The great social event of the season and that which has been uppermost in the minds of the young folks for the past two weeks, transpired on Thursday evening, the occasion being a dress ball given under the auspices of the Waverly Club, a society formed by the young men of the town for the purpose of social and literary culture.

The ball was a brilliant one in every respect, and it has seldom fallen to the lot of your correspondent to have attended a more enjoyable affair. I hope the marked success of this, their first one, will act as an incentive to greater things in the future. An organization of this kind supplies a long felt want, and we hope the boys will receive that encouragement which they so justly deserve. Let the good work go on.

Yours, &c.,
 T. C.

Subscribers to art periodicals are naturally desirous of selecting the best. Each has its merits, but The Art Amateur is the highest practical value to students and amateurs. Its large size enables the publisher to give not only pictures, but an abundance of working drawings, which, with the simple directions which accompany them, are easily applied. In the current (December) number, for instance, there are no less than fourteen pages of practical designs for china painting, wood carving, art needlework, painting on silk, "etching" on linen, etc., etc. The much esteemed designs of Camille Pissarro are contributed exclusively to The Art Amateur. These have included sets of large and small plates; highly decorative plaques of heads, birds and flowers; panels for screens and furniture, and even a complete facing for a mantle, consisting of eighteen full size designs. George R. Harris and others will continue to furnish designs for menus, ball programmes, fans, kettledrum cards, etc., etc., and leading artists will contribute original designs for ladies' dress. The suggestions for Home Decoration will be especially valuable. The price of The Art Amateur is 35 cents monthly, or $4 a year. Club rates: Two subscriptions, $7; three subscriptions, $10; four subscriptions, $12. Each additional subscription, $3. Montague Marks, Publisher, 23 Union Square, New York City.
